

Haas School of Business
PHD Program
2008-09 Fellowship Opportunities

Type	Eligibility	Fellowship	Terms of the Award	What to Submit
California Management Review Fellowship (CMR)	PhD students from all fields of study in the Haas School Applicants should have excellent writing skills and familiarity with quantitative research. Applicants should be able to contribute to the writing of research that is both relevant to the practice of management and accessible to managers.	$24,000 stipend	-The CMR Fellow is expected to work with one or more Haas faculty member(s) to produce one co-authored paper publishable in the California Management Review. Paper could be primarily based on your research, the faculty member's research or a joint project. -CMR Fellowship recipient serves as a general liaison between CMR and Haas faculty research, and assists in manuscripts review for CMR. -This award cannot be held concurrently with another fellowship.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Application ◆ Current CV ◆ Writing sample ◆ One page outline of co-authored paper topic ◆ Letter of support from faculty member who will co-author paper (needs to include assessment of applicant)

Type	Eligibility	Fellowship	Terms of the Award	What to Submit
Crawford Research Assistantships	Women from all fields of study entering their second or third year in the Haas PhD program.	$24,000 stipend plus full tuition and fees	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Woman students who are making satisfactory academic progress and who have a specific joint research proposal with a faculty sponsor/collaborator -Each Haas PhD group may award one research assistant-ship if there is a qualified applicant -This award cannot be held concurrently with another fellowship. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Application ◆ Current CV ◆ 1-3 page description of your joint research proposal ◆ Letter of endorsement from faculty collaborator (needs to include assessment of applicant and research project)
White Research Assistantship	Students from all fields of study entering their second or third year in the Haas PhD program with research related to investment banking	$24,000 stipend and full tuition and fees	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Based upon the conditions of the endowment, the research needs to be related to investment banking -Student who is making satisfactory academic progress and has a specific joint research proposal with a faculty sponsor/collaborator -This award cannot be held concurrently with another fellowship. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Application ◆ Current CV ◆ 1-3 page description of your joint research proposal ◆ Letter of endorsement from faculty collaborator (needs to include assessment of applicant)

Type	Eligibility	Fellowship	Terms of the Award	What to Submit
Crawford Dissertation Fellowship	Women students in all fields of study in the Haas PhD program who are advanced to candidacy	$24,000 stipend and full tuition and fees	-A woman student who is making satisfactory academic progress with plans to finish her dissertation within the year of the award. -This award cannot be held concurrently with another fellowship.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆Application ◆Current CV ◆4-5 page description of your dissertation research ◆Letter of support from dissertation chair that includes an assessment of the applicant and the dissertation research.
Schwabacher Dissertation Fellowship	Students from all fields of study in the Haas PhD program, who are advanced to candidacy	$24,000 stipend and full tuition and fees	Student who is making satisfactory academic progress and who plans to finish their dissertation within the year of the award. -This award cannot be held concurrently with another fellowship.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆Application ◆Current CV ◆4-5 page description of your dissertation research ◆Complete dissertation section of fellowship application ◆Letter of support from dissertation chair that includes an assessment of the applicant and of the dissertation research.
White Dissertation Fellowship	Students from all fields of study in the Haas PhD program, who are advanced to candidacy and have research related to investment banking.	$24,000 academic year stipend, $5,000 summer 2008 support and all tuition and fees	- Research needs to be related to investment banking -Student making satisfactory academic progress and will finish the dissertation within the year of the award -This award cannot be held concurrently with another fellowship.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆Application ◆Current CV ◆4-5 page description of your dissertation research ◆Letter of support from dissertation chair that includes an assessment of the applicant and of the dissertation research.

PhD Fellowship Application Instructions 2008-2009

A separate fellowship application is necessary for each fellowship. Attach all the required supporting documents to the fellowship application.

Letters of support or endorsement submitted by faculty need to be either in a sealed envelope or sent directly to king@haas.berkeley.edu

Submit all application materials to the PhD Program Office, F477 by 4:00 PM on Thursday, March 20, 2008.

All applicants will be notified of their status by April 18, 2008.

Haas PhD Fellowship Application
2008-09

Name: _____ SID#: _____

Field: _____ Year Entered: _____

I am applying for the following fellowship:

- California Management Review Research Fellowship
- Crawford Research Assistantship
- White Research Assistantship
- Crawford Dissertation Fellowship
- Schwabacher Dissertation Fellowship
- White Dissertation Fellowship

Applicants applying for a dissertation fellowship answer the following:

Date of Oral Qualifying Exam: _____

Yes No I plan on filing my dissertation by May 21, 2009.

Dissertation Committee:

All Applicants:

List other fellowship applications you have pending: _____

I understand that this award is not to be used concurrently with another fellowship.

Signature Date

Deadline: March 20, 2008, 4:00 PM