We will have your previous application on file, but will need to know what parts of your prior application you want to move forward to your current application.

If you applied for admission more than two years ago, you must submit a new application and provide all required materials.

Re-applicants must meet all current deadlines and requirements.

To re-activate your Haas application:

You must complete the following forms of the Graduate Application:

 - b. Part B
 - c. Parts C, D and E if applicable

Optional:

We recommend that you submit a new statement of purpose as well as new letters of recommendation. Let us know on Part B of the Graduate Application which letters you want us to consider, in addition to contacting the Ph.D. Program office as described above.
- Submit application fee ($60)

If you have attended any educational institutions in the time between the previous application and the re-activation, you must submit one transcript from each institution attended. This applies to work that was in progress at the time of your previous application.

If your previously submitted GMAT or GRE score is more than five years old, you must submit a new score. If you are required to submit proof of English proficiency, please note that we can only consider tests taken within the last year of the application. Please check the Graduate Division website at www.grad.berkeley.edu for specific information about required English language proficiency tests (including expiration dates and waivers).

The information on this sheet overrides the instructions for re-activation given in the Graduate Application or in any other publication. When we receive your request for re-activation along with the materials listed above, we will review your file and notify you of any missing materials.
